REMAINS TO BE SEEN

A beautiful and unusual edition of the Bible has recently been issued. The binding is full black seal grained leather, padded cover, full gilt edge on red. The gold stamping is artistic and the workmanship perfect. The edition comes in ten volumes and contains 1000 illustrations, according to Gordon Ray Young, book reviewer for the Los Angeles Times, who in praise of the edition uses nearly two columns of the Times in describing the artistic book. Gordon in a footnote informs his readers that "the editor of the Times has purchased a complete set of the edition de luxe."

As the editor of the Los Angeles Times piped daily to the people of California not to vote for Hiram W. Johnson for governor, and the voters heeded not his request, desire, nor advice, knowing the editor of the Los Angeles Times loathed and despised Governor Johnson, but voted for and elected Governor Johnson for the second term, it remains to be seen whether or not the editor of the Los Angeles Times will derive any more pleasure and edification from reading in his beautiful, costly, ten-volume edition de luxe Bible.

"We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented," Matthew 11:17.

Than he could from reading the same verse in the cheapest edition of the Bible obtainable.

LUE F. VERNON.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMIC SECTION

There will be an unusually interesting meeting of this section on Friday, Nov. 12th, at 7:30 p. m. The Misses Shropshire of Fifth and Everett streets will act as hostesses. Mrs. Pierce, who has been a domestic science teacher at the Y. W. C. A. in Los Angeles, will give an instructive lesson on food values.

All club members interested are invited to come and enjoy the privilege of hearing this well-known instructor, who was Miss Farmer's assistant teacher at her cooking school in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Harden Darnley of North Louise street spent four days of this week as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Roy Kimball, who has recently returned from an extended visit to their childhood home in England.

MCCLAREN TO LECTURE

WILL SPEAK ON "TRIUMPHANT FAITH"—THE THEMES AT OTHER CHURCHES

The Sunday school assemblies at 9:45. At 11 a. m. Dr. E. H. Willisford, the pastor, speaks. At 6:30 p. m. the Christian Endeavor meets. This is a very important meeting. Several matters of business are to come up, and all members are urged to come. It has been decided to repeat the contest, which proved so successful a short time ago. At the Sunday night meeting the captains for the two sides will be selected, and the contest will start a week from Sunday, November 15. It will run until about Christmas time, when the losing side will give a banquet to the victors. Plans for the regular business meetings and socials are to be discussed Sunday night, and it is hoped that all can be present.

Special evening service at 7:30. In place of the regular sermon, Dr. James McLaren, the dramatic orator of California, will speak on "Triumphant Faith." This is what is said of Dr. McLaren:

James McLaren is of Scottish ancestry, with, as he says, "just enough Irish to make it interesting." Two things especially characterize him. One of these is his thorough scholarship, Dr. McLaren being identified with or holding degrees from six colleges and universities, among them being Brown university, Andover and Yale.

His platform work is not for the few, but for the many. He has had wonderful success in making great things plain; so that while the most cultured praise his eloquence as marvelous, the boys and girls say "I understand every word of it."

Dr. Wirt Lowther: "McLaren is unanimously the most popular lecturer ever heard in Dwight, Ills." Dr. Fritzmeier, Rochester, Wisconsin: "Dr. McLaren's description of Westminster Abbey in his lecture, 'The Light of England,' is the finest I ever listened to, not excepting Bishop Quayle's. As a lecturer he is in a plane with Dr. Gungahaus."

Malcolm James MacLeod: "One of the foremost lecturers of our country. He has thrilled great audiences with his intense, compelling force."

Music for the morning: Duet, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus," Blake Franklin and Ralph W. Beers. Evening anthem, "Lovely Zion," by Gabriel.

TANGO PARTY

DR. AND MRS. CHAS. BACHMAN ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF MOVIE DIRECTOR

Perhaps the prettiest private dancing party of the season was that given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Bachman at 303 West Ninth street Friday evening as a farewell courtesy to Mr. Geo. Melford, director for three years of the Kalem company in Glendale and now director of the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Film company, with studio in Hollywood.

Pink carnations and white chrysanthemums, together with ropes of feathery fern, were artistically arranged in the music-room and spacious living and dining rooms, where dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening.

An elaborate buffet supper was served in the den, which had been skillfully done over to suit the occasion.

Besides the host and hostess, well known for their cordial hospitality, and the honored guest and Mrs. Melford, programs were given Mr. and Mrs. Joseph De Grasse of the Universal company, Mrs. Ollie Kirby, a former member of Mr. Melford's company and now with Mr. Carlyle Blackwell in Edendale, and Mr. W. W. Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wilson of New York, Mr. and Mrs. S. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cawood, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clisbee, Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gillett, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Horne, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. James Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. G. Lingham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Myton, Mr. and Mrs. D. Ridgely, Mr. and Mrs. William Herman West, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wilkins, Miss Ruth Roland and the Messrs. Leon Bachman, A. C. Gage, Robert H. Grey and Frank Jonasson.

G. T. CLUB ENTERTAINED

The G. T. club members made merry at the home of Mrs. F. H. Vesper at 907 Lomita avenue on Wednesday afternoon. Huge yellow chrysanthemums were used throughout to brighten the rooms.

The hours were spent in plying the needle and chatting, together with making plans for a "beefsteak dinner" soon, to be given in Griffith park complimentary to the husbands of the club members.

During the afternoon Mrs. Vesper served a buffet luncheon to Mrs. J. W. Uilson, Mrs. John Roman, Mrs. Earl R. Naudain, Mrs. Philip Englehorn, Mrs. L. H. Wilkinson, Mrs. G. W. Waite, Mrs. Chester C. Kling and Mrs. Herman Nelson.

NEED FOR LEGAL REFORMS

The whole country is coming to appreciate the urgent need for many reforms in our methods of legal procedure. So pronounced has the feeling become that a great many of the lawyers and jurists are beginning to take the same view and some of them are working loyally to bring about the changes which seem to them to be most needed. It is always a difficult thing to induce men to throw off the yokes of habit and tradition, but it begins to be as though some real progress was being made in the direction of saner laws and simpler court proceedings.

Back in Iowa there is a judge who is in sympathy with this new thought and is already working to establish it in his court. He says the place to commence is at the foundation, and with him that means the jury. Accordingly he would drop much of the old ideas regarding the qualifications of jurors and would select them more in accord with the dictates of common sense.

Carrying out his ideas he would establish in every community a jury list of men who can read and write, who can see and hear. He would even go so far as to select men with sufficient intelligence to understand the testimony as to the facts pertinent to the cases being tried before them.

Trial by jury has become a joke in far too many instances. Lawyers who would be glad to try their cases on the evidence and the law are compelled to try them in the selection of the jury. Then when their last challenge is exhausted, they are forced to accept the arbitrament of an uncertain chance in the drawing of the next name.

This is all very well so far as it goes, though it is but the beginning of the reform which is bound to come. The laws must be revised, the useless ones cut out remorselessly, and the good rewritten into plain, common-sense English which anyone may understand. Then the courts must be freed from their absurd adherence to precedent, their proceedings simplified and the determination of exact justice rather than a slavish following of technicality be made their central thought. When this has been done the courts will be restored to the performance of their true functions and at the same time to that place in the reverence of the people that should always have been preserved for them.

ELECTION LAW KICKS

In two other articles the Advocate has called attention to the small booths and narrow boards on which to mark the blanket ballots, also to the need of twice as many voting precincts and as many more election judges. We have also mentioned advisability of a law limiting the number of amendments to go on the ballot for any one election, our suggestion being that twelve amendments should be the largest number allowed able on the ballot.

The election was held Tuesday and there are precincts in Alhambra in which the count will not be completed before night. This makes 60 hours' continuous service for one election board. What would the people of Alhambra do if a teamster were to work his horses sixty hours continuously without proper rest? They would insist on the owner or driver being arrested and fined for cruelty to animals. And why not? What is this continuous sixty hours' count but cruelty to humanity? It should not be tolerated.

Let us remedy the voting situation in California before the next election. The representative-elect from this district can get busy right now framing a measure that will remedy the condition and if he can work it through as his maiden effort, his political future is assured.

There should be a stipulated allowance for each eight hours of work on the election boards for the members and no maximum of $10 as now provided under the old law.—Alhambra Advocate.

NOV. 20 IS CIRCUS DAY

Depending entirely on trained animals to give the entertainment, the Al G. Barnes big three-ring wild animal circus stands forth as the circus distinctly different from all others. It's a big, three-ring circus, however, with acres of tents, parade glories, bands, clowns, sawdust rings and general circus festivities, yet it has none but new features on its program.

Inside of a big steel-barred arena in the center of the show's mammoth tent are presented some of the most amazing, thrilling wild animal spectacles ever witnessed. Men and women trainers vie with one another for the plaudits of the people by presenting death-defying acts with wild animals. Mlle. Florine offers a group of Persian leopards and jaguars; Miss Mabel Stark presents Royal Bengal and Siberian tigers, and Maj. Thornton has a large number of grizzly and other ferocious bears.

The greatest wild animal act ever successfully shown is given in the arena by Herr Louie Roth. Twenty-four full-grown jungle-bred African lions are assembled at one time in this act by Herr Roth. His lack of fear among the great cats seems fairly "devilish." The act is a thriller of the first water.

In the ring at either side of the arena are shown the domestic and less ferocious animals. A large herd of elephants, trained to do many amazing things, are presented in these rings. Camels, zebras, kangaroos, dogs, goats and monkeys are continually busy in the sawdust circles.

Other features of especial interest are Tom, Dick and Harry—juggling horse-riding sea lions. Sampson the aviation lion and the Barnes troupe of beautiful horses and ponies.

There are 550 of them and they are absolutely unrivalled as to beauty, breeding and education among the world's horses.

The comedy part of the show's program is provided by fifty comedy elephants, mules, ponies, dogs, monkeys and bears.

A big new feature parade is presented at 10:30. Performances will be given in Glendale at 2 and 8 p. m. on Friday, Nov. 20th. Doors are opened at 1 and 7 p. m.

Let's make war on war talk. Let's not talk war against Mexico or any other nation. Talking war and thinking war oftentimes event great influence toward producing war.

We shall soon have as many peace treaties as Belgium. And look at her.—Los Angeles Times.

The federal reserve banking system is being instituted in this country at a particularly opportune time. It should serve to stabilize financial conditions all over the country and afford ample volume of currency to meet all needs, at all times, and yet not lead to unhealthy inflation.

NORTH GLENDALE

Dr. Herbert King of Ocean Park was in North Glendale Friday looking after property interests.

Mr. George Tyrrell and family, who have occupied the property at 1640 Ruth street for the past several months, will move into their own home on Hawthorne street in a few days.

Several attractive bungalows are being erected in the neighborhood of Burchett street and Central avenue. The opening of Orange street north to Burchett is adding much in the way of improvement to that locality.

Mrs. Harden Darnley of North Louise street returned Thursday from a four days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Roy Kimball, of Newport. Mrs. Darnley and sister were very happy to be together and had a most delightful time talking over the childhood days spent in Gloucester, England, from which place Mrs. Kimball just returned after several months' absence.

Mrs. Frank Alberts of Howard and Randolph streets, with her mother, Mrs. Edward M. Moore of 832 Dryden street, were a party who enjoyed the day in Los Angeles Friday.

Mrs. C. H. Allison of 1029 Fairview avenue spent the day in Los Angeles Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fairchild of 1321 Arden avenue will entertain at dinner this evening complimentary to Mr. M. R. Thompson of New York, who celebrates his birthday on this date. Pink carnations will be used to decorate the table and throughout the various rooms of the attractive home beautiful yellow chrysanthemums will be arranged. A full course dinner will be served by the gracious hostess to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Williams of Burchett street and Mr. M. R. Thompson.

Mrs. George H. Marsh of 1645 Ruth street entertained at a prettily appointed dinner last Thursday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilbur of Rancho La Solano, San Gabriel.

Mrs. A. B. Clement of 1321 North Pacific avenue entertained as her guest Friday Mrs. Bayard of the Frenz apartments, who leaves about the tenth of the month for an extended stay in Lindsay, Cal.

The property located at 1640 Ruth street formerly owned by Mr. Frank Silvius of Tropico has changed hands very recently and is now owned by a party from Altadena, who will take possession in the near future.

BOSTON ANIMAL HOSPITAL

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—With the opening of the Angell Memorial hospital next month, the Massachusetts S. P. C. A. will give Boston the most up-to-date hospital in the world for taking care of the ills of every sort of animal from bird to horse, declared local veterinarians today. The building adjoins the Harvard Medical school.

Examination, operating and "soak" rooms—even to the ward rooms for the patients—have been provided. Apartments have also been laid out for the care and attention of smaller animals and birds. In fact, the hospital will have all the conveniences of the modern "humankind" hospital.

TEACHING NEGRO GIRLS IN ARKANSAS

In his current report, Leo M. Favrot, associate supervisor of rural schools in Arkansas, shows that genuine interest has been aroused in housework studies among the negro girls of the state. Of those who received instruction during the school year of 1913-14, 2296 were taught sewing, 327 were enrolled in the cooking class and 436 received lessons in serving. The latter numbers it is said would have been much higher had it not been for lack of equipment. The Arkansas Gazette of Little Rock finds encouragement in the figures even as they stand, and asks that white people in the state do all in their power toward bringing the schools in which negro girls are taught domestic duties up to the highest possible standard in equipment. The whites certainly have a duty to perform here, a responsibility to assume; it is plainly to their interest, and it should be their pleasure to recognize both.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Inter-class tennis starts on Nov. 17 at the high school. The various players are trying out for their class team position.

At an interesting student body meeting held Friday afternoon, the budget for the school activities was announced. The total mounts up to somewhere 'round four hundred and seventy-five dollars.

Every year at the G. U. H. S., according to a custom fostered by the Associated Girl Students, the freshmen girls are entertained at a garden fete. This was the big affair which took place on the schoolhouse lawn Friday afternoon, where none but girls, and a plenty of them, too, played games, held an amateur track meet, gave cheers for everyone, and then enjoyed the delicious refreshments prepared by the committee in charge. After all the fun that the front of the high school grounds could afford, the girls held themselves to the basketball bleachers and rooted for the local boys while they trounced the Burbank five.

USONA DISBAND

The war in Europe, which has been interfering with industries in the warring countries and in the United States as well, has caused the dissolution of one of Glendale's institutions, the Usona Film company, which has been making pictures in Glendale exclusively for European release for more than a year. This company, of which Mr. Burton King is manager, has been financed by W. N. Selig, president of the Selig Poloscope company. Thirty-nine pictures have been released for European show houses.

It is to be regretted that this live institution has found it necessary to discontinue activities here.

CITY BEAUTIFUL MEETING

The City Beautiful association will meet tonight at half past seven at the city hall, at which time Mr. W. J. Clendenin, the newly elected president, will take up his work and plans for the work will be discussed. Any interested in this work will be welcomed.

STANLEY COMPOUNDS POISON

OAK CURE

Mr. Charles E. Stanley of the Glendale California Chemical company, a chemist of many years' experience, and manufacturer of various preparations, has compounded a remedy for poison oak that will prove a boon to those who are susceptible to this disagreeable form of poisoning. A thorough trial was made in a number of cases before putting this remedy on the market, and it has been found to absolutely cure aggravated cases of this poison in a short time.

Those who frequent the woods and mountain trails will hail with delight such a preparation.

California citizens have the name of taking advantage of the strangers who come here with money. Whatever truth there is in this statement it remains a fact that a large percent of people doing business in California came here strangers not many years ago. If strangers are fleeced, they in turn soon learn to do the new stranger.
